FLAG RAISING/LOWERING

Today: LTP Girls

DID YOU KNOW:

According to the Federal Flag Code the American flag should be raised “briskly” taking no more than 20 seconds from the start of raising to reach the top of the flag pole.

- If you have horses for your hagigah you have an extra ride today!
- If you have unfinished ceramics projects, today is the day to finish them !

MATH TIME MIXERS

Leah is doing some research for next summer's puppy program. She's worried about the puppies damaging campers' property. Here's what she learned: Bulldogs and poodles both like to bury shoes. A bulldog buries, on average, 5 shoes per hour for 5 hours a day. The average poodle, only buries shoes for 2 hours a day, but will generally bury 9 more shoes in total per day than a bulldog. How many shoes does the poodle bury per hour? Which kind of puppies should camp get next summer???

Some of our counselors have already been at camp for two months! That's 86,400 minutes!
