Section C – Medical Forms and Issues and Dietary Requirements

14. I/we agree that the required camper medical form and health history form is to be completed in full no later than April 15th, and that we will ensure that any medications, accompanies the camper to Camp Stein on or before opening day.

15. Camp Stein reserves the right to cancel any registration in the event Camp Stein is of the view, in its sole discretion, that information on the camper medical form is incomplete or inaccurate or missing information on the form discovered before or after the commencement of camp suggests that it is not in the best interests of the child or Camp Stein for the child to attend Camp Stein. In such case, a full refund will be provided;

16. I/we authorize Camp Stein or its delegates, to proceed with appropriate medical care for my child as required in the event I/we cannot be reached (nor the emergency contact person provided by you on the enclosed form) within a reasonable period of time, including transportation in Camp Stein or private vehicles driven by Camp Stein staff or volunteers. Even if I can be reached, I/we authorize the transportation of my child to required medical or other treatment in Camp Stein or private vehicles driven by Camp Stein staff or volunteers, as required;

17. I/we will pay for the costs of any necessary prescription drugs and/or special medical treatment;

18. I/we hereby agree that Camp Stein's medical staff are authorized to share complete information on the medical status and health of my child with the senior staff of Camp Stein, my child's unit head, and counselors;

19. If for any reason my/our child requires medical attention or special medication beyond that furnished by Camp Stein, I/we agree to be responsible for any expenses incurred.

20. No refunds will be offered for continuous medical absence in the event that the cause is a widespread infectious disease affecting significant numbers (as determined by Camp Stein, acting reasonably) of persons inside or outside of Camp Stein. This includes but not limited to the COVID-19 virus and all related variants. I/We acknowledge that no refund will be processed until the end of Camp Stein season;

21. I/we agree that I/we will abide, with respect to our child, by the vaccination policy published on our website. I/we further agree that should we not abide by that policy, our child may not attend camp.

Section D- Termination of Registration and Camper Participation

22. Camp Stein reserves the right to terminate the registration of any camper when it is deemed by the Camp Director to be in the best interests of the child or Camp Stein. In such an event, it is understood that an appropriate refund will be issued unless the camper is dismissed for infractions of Camp Stein's policies in which case, no refund will be issued. Infractions of Camp Stein's policies include but are not limited to smoking, drugs (including those permitted by law and misuse of over-the-counter or prescription drugs), alcohol, physical abuse, sexual harassment or activity, vandalism, bullying and any other inappropriate behavior as solely determined by Camp Stein's Camp Director or Congregation Beth Israel Senior Staff. Misrepresentation or omission of a camper's mental/physical health and/or health history that would be pertinent to understanding the camper and results in dismissal from camp, no refund will be issued;

23. Campers are required to participate in all scheduled activities save and except for those from which there is a medical exception provided in writing by a qualified physician whom is not a parent. Campers that repeatedly refuse to, for whatever reason, will be returned to their family's care. In this event, no refund can be given and any transportation expenses incurred will be applied to the family's account;

24. Campers are not allowed to have cell phones at camp. If a camper brings a cell phone to camp, Camp Stein staff will ask the camper to turn the device in to the Camp Director. It will be returned on the last day of camp.
