

Housing Information

What we call 'cabins' are rooms within buildings. Each building has 2-4 cabins. Groups should use cabins by building, not expanding into other cabins until one building is completely filled. Discuss housing needs with Operations Manager if your group desires added separation between groups.

Grouskay (Rooms 1 & 2) and Strauss (Rooms 3 & 4) – Each building houses 30 people.

Dormitory-style with 2 cabins in each building. Each room sleeps 15 with 6 bunk beds and 3 single beds.

Lewkowitz (Rooms 5 & 6) and Frazin (Rooms 7 & 8) – Each building houses 30 people.

Dormitory-style with 2 cabins in each building. Each room sleeps 15 with 6 bunk beds and 3 single beds.

(The cabins above use central bath house)

Sisterhood (Rooms 9-12) – Each building houses 60 people.

Dormitory-style with 4 cabins in each building/(15 per side) - 6 bunk beds and 3 singles in each.

Upper Quad (Rooms 13-16) – Each building houses 60 people.

Dormitory-style with 4 cabins in each building/(15 per side) - 6 bunk beds and 3 singles in each.

(The cabins above use central bath house)

Adult/Family Housing

Upstairs Recreation Center/Barn: 6 semi-private rooms with 3 beds total in each room: A combo of full-size and single beds in each room. Every 2 rooms share "Jack & Jill" style bathroom and shower facilities.

Health Center: One room features a queen-sized bed and full private bathroom. Three semi-private patient rooms with 2-4 single beds in each and 1 isolation room with one bed and one sink; all share central bathroom facilities in the infirmary building.

Infirmary Annex (Doctor's Suite): Part of the infirmary building with door that leads to the main room of the infirmary, from a hallway leading to the annex rooms. Two rooms each with a queen-sized bed and access to a shared full private bathroom. The front room has an outside door. The back bedroom is only accessed through the hall from the infirmary or front room.

Lerner: Please inquire as to sleeping accommodation availability in Lerner building. Currently one room available with a king-sized bed and full private bathroom.

TO FIND OUT MORE...

Please contact our Business and Retreat Manager at mholtzman@cbiaz.org or 480-951-0323.